Jefferson Corbett,
I have lots of Corbitt's, a few Coopers, but no Winningshams. Look at the list below and see if you recognize anything.

The above outline was taken from the Olin Salley book , A History of the Salley Family, and is duplicated in a lineage chart by Leon Franklin Garvin dated 7/15/1977. Mr. Garvin's chart also indicates that John Ott's parents were John Frederick Ott and Magdalene Wechter. The Supplement to the History of the Salley Family shows Sarah Salley married to Benjamin Pendarvis, son of Brand Pendarvis and Sertina____. It also states that she later married William Ham. Does anyone have any information as to whether she was married to all three or if some of this information is in error. The way it was written in the Olin Salley book leads one to believe that the information on Ott may be speculative.

I found a copy of a book in the Aiken Library that I believe was done by the Aiken Historical Society or Genealogical Society that had inventories of most of the Aiken County Cemeteries. I made copies of the inventories of the previously mentioned cemeteries which were done by a Mr. Al Brodie around 1988. I could probably check the inventory next time I am in that area and add any new graves. My mother and her sisters still own some land near Salley, S.C. on which years ago I remembered seeing a fenced in enclosure that I was sure was a cemetery. No one that I asked knew anything about it so I've been there looking for it several times. I recalled it being in a field but the field now has 20 year old trees in it so it took a little time to locate. After I found it I went back to the car to get something to make notes on and it started raining so I'll have to go back. It is a small cemetery but I do remember the names Dodenhoff, Sawyer, and O'Dowd.

Alexandra Steele-

Welcome to the list. I too am researching the Salley family and hope that we can share some information. I will send you a separate e-mail as to what I have.

Gene Jefferies-

I found that I had an error in the Guignard information and am waiting to receive some more dates before I send you the outline. Actually, I think that the Family Tree Maker program is causing the mistakes. I keep having trouble with the correct listing of spouses when an individual has more than one. Even when I enter them in the proper sequence, if there is no marriage date for one of the marriages, the program seems to assume that the one with no date is the first spouse

Welcome to The List. We can share a lot of information on the above families.

Please give us a little info about the time frame you are researching, snail-mail address, etc. Will send you a FAQ message that may also help.

Hi, everyone, this is my first time. My grandfather was Stanmore David Bolen of Orangeburg county SC, the first Bolen to come to SC from Ireland was Edward Bolen he married Ann Elizabeth Salley. I know a lot of you probly have this information but I just received it not to long ago so for those who don't. Henry Salley [grandfather of Nancy Ann Elizabeth Salley Bolen] born 2 Oct 1690 in Zeglingen, Switzerland. He emmigrated in July 1735 to Orangeburg District, SC died in 1765 in Orangeburg District, SC. He married Maria Von Arx on 22 Oct 1720.

Maria

Von Arx died in Orangeburg District SC. Maria Von Arx was a descendant of the noble family of Arx. She is said to lhave been born in the old Ancestral home in the Sity of Speyer in the Palatinate of Germany 1700.

She and her ancestors wre Protestants. Only a few members escaped death in the religious war 1710-1750. I had some information on the Salleys but not this I thought it was quit interesting.

I'm am also related to the Bells, Bulls, Dantzler, Conner, Myers. from my grandmother side. On my grandfathers side I have Bolen [Bolin], Brown, Bonnet, Murphy, Salley. Would love to get and share information with others.

Thank You

Gene,
When is the fish fry?
I too would like to know more about the origins of the Salley name. In the old family cemeteries the tombstones spell the name Sally up until about 1840/50. In the book by Faust and Brumbaugh on Swiss Emigrants to America the family is listed under the heading Heini Salin and immediately below says Heini Sohli left Switzerland for Carolina in 1735. Why the different spelling for supposedly the same person. This information is supposed to come from the Swiss Archives so would think one spelling or the other is correct. In Olin Salley's book on the family he states that Giessendanner recorded it as Zaley and Sahly but that someone, probably A.S. Salley, and changed it to Salley. Olin's book also contains a partial copy of a 1780's deed that Martin Salley signed that indeed looked like he signed Salley. Jim S., Am still looking for the address on the Hartzog that I had contact with last year. Also stopped by the library tonight as I thought that I had seen something on the Hartzogs in a DAR book but was unable to find anything.

Gene,
I have received Dr. Salley's information on the 6 sons of George Elmore Salley and have entered it into the computer. However, I have a couple of things that I don't understand about the info and am sending him outlines of the brothers asking about them. I've still got a great deal to do to get these files up to date, but in the meantime would you like me to send you an outline on Martin Salley? Did you get the information on the O'Dowd/Salley/Sawyer/Milhous cemetery? The Martin Salley outline is 51 pages long, do you want me to send it snail mail or e-mail it direct?

Yes, I received the O'Dowd cemtery inventory. Thank you very much.
Also, the Martin Salley outline would be very much appreciated. I would prefer e-mail direct, even if broken into two or more messages. Try the entire

Do not believe Dr. Lawton Salley has place a copy of his research in the Caroliniana Library. However, there is a Supplement to the Salley

History placed there. It gives some additional information not provided in the book, especially the Martin Salley line. Dr. Salley (Orangeburg)

descended via John (your line). I have Dr. Salley's pedigree chart and some of his early Swiss research which I will gladly share. It is available also in the Salley Archives in Orangeburg. Dr. Salley attended the Oktoberfest for many years but has missed the last two or three. He may attend on 7 October.

Will,

There is a lot of speculation regarding the OTT family. I exchanged e-mail with a fellow in France (Mark James) for many months regarding Jacob OTT/Melchior OTT. Peggy Miller Easterling has privately pub. an OTT book. But then J. Wayne Hilton of Graniteville seemed to make the connection by Parish Receord in Meiringen, Switzerland. I have copies but did not include the info. on the OTT Family message. Will revise my database and send out an update shortly. One researcher feels that John Frederick OTT was a separate line as he arrived via Cape Fear in 1750. I will try to get my database update with my files on the OTT family and see if it makes more sence.
